Monday's Class

Saturday Class. This year the class will teach the basic steps used in blacksmithing. Each student will come away with 3 completed projects. They are a key chain with a leaf, a bottle opener and a wall sconce. Although, this picture does not show the sconce with a candle cup the finished project will have one.

Monday's Class. Every good cook needs a fork and a spatula. Come make one for your favorite cook

COST - $25 per student for each day.

All participants MUST be a member of Rough and Tumble.

CLASS SIZE There is a limit of 10 students per day. Space is reserved upon receipt of payment. Participants should be at least 16 years of age, however, if you have a younger child you can contact either Russ Jenkins or Dave Kaufmann to discuss the possibility of class attendance. Both events will start at 9am and will go until everyone is finished.

All registration forms and money are to be submitted to Russell Jenkins using the address listed on the registration form below. If you have any questions contact Russ or Sandy at 610-363-0875 or email them at yeoldsmithy@aol.com
